- Alternatively, unconnected contacts can be assigned by adding their RFL Ticketmaster account number and surname in the 'Search outside of your network option'.
- It is advisable for fans to create their accounts first and share their RFL Ticketmaster account number with the lead booker so that they can be grouped together in the ballot application up to a maximum of 6 tickets. Once you have reached the ballot application page, you can find your RFL Ticketmaster account number by clicking the My Account option in the top right of the page (highlighted in red below).

Once you have the RFL Ticketmaster account number and surname of all Season Ticket Holders that you would like to apply for (up to a maximum of 6 tickets including yourself), choose 'Search outside of your network' and in the Membership field add in each Season Ticket Holder's respective RFL Ticketmaster account number and then their surname to add them to your Network and ballot application.

- On the final page, simply complete the payment details and agree to the terms of sale.
- Once the application has been processed, you will receive an email confirmation.
- Payment will only be taken if you are successful with your ballot application.
